ACA & IWÖ jointly present:

“Sustainability in Numbers” Research Seminar

Debates about sustainability are everywhere these days. Yet, to find lasting solutions to grand societal and environmental challenges, we need to challenge much of our conventional wisdom about success, performance, numbers, and narratives, and embolden more integrative, innovative, and interdisciplinary thinking.

To offer a platform for this, SiN invites researchers who use their expertise in Accounting, Finance & Economics to ask novel and disruptive questions surrounding the management of grand societal challenges.

In this spirit, we warmly invite you to the next SiN Research Seminar on Wednesday, October 25th, 2023.
